11. MEETINGS OF THE PARTIES

At least 3 (three) times annually during the period of this agreement at such venues and dates as may be agreed between the Parties from time to time, the duly authorised representatives of the Parties shall meet under the chairmanship of one of the trustees of the insurer or their nominee for the purpose of facilitating the implementation and administration of this agreement and discussing the relationship between the Parties in general.

12. CESSION AND DELEGATION

- 12.1 Neither Party shall be entitled to cede or delegate its rights and obligations in terms of this agreement. Any change in the control of the intermediary shall constitute a contravention of this clause unless otherwise agreed in writing by AIA.
- 12.2 The intermediary accepts that the provisions of this agreement shall not constitute it as agent or legal representative of AIA. Should AIA or any one or more of its insurers become bound or liable to any person, business, company or close corporation as a result of any unauthorised representation, statement, act or omission on its part, the intermediary will, in turn, be liable to AIA or the applicable insurer therefore. The intermediary hereby indemnifies AIA and all the applicable insurers against all ensuing consequences, including any loss or damage that may be suffered by any one or more of them arising thereform.
- 12.3 The intermediary agrees to inform all of their current members of the insurer that the insurer shall only be liable for the payment of benefits in respect of those periods for which contributions have been paid, as set out in terms of the policy wording.

13. WHOLE AGREEMENT

This agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and no warranties, representations, whether express or implied, not contained herein shall be binding on the parties. No agreement at variance with the terms and conditions of this agreement shall be binding on the parties unless reduced to a written document signed by, or on behalf of, all the parties.

14. GENERAL STIPULATIONS

- 14.1 No applications will be registered if the application form for membership of the insurer is incomplete. Such applications will be placed on hold pending the receipt of the required information for membership.
- 14.2 Registration of groups will only take place provided the following requirements and conditions are met:
- 14.2.1 A detailed analysis of the employer is submitted, which includes the history of the medical insurers and claims ratios
- 14.2.2 The employer's contract must be supplied (where applicable)

14.3 If the intermediary:

- Partnership and a change in partnership has occurred or is being contemplated
- Company or close corporation and a change in the directorship, shareholding or membership has occurred or is being contemplated The intermediary shall immediately notify AIA thereof. AIA shall then be entitled to terminate this agreement with immediate effect if not satisfied with any such change.

15. NON-WAIVER

No relaxation or indulgence on the part of a party to this agreement in exercising any right conferred upon such Party shall constitute a waiver or novation of any such right, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right preclude any other or future exercise thereof, or the exercise of any other right under this agreement.
